

Sodexo shares the aims of the education community. From pre-schools to universities, We support the institutions' mission of learning by creating safe and comfortable environments conducive to academic success.

We offer the benefits of enhanced dining experiences and living and learning spaces, provided by our full palette of services that improve Quality of Life.

Sodexo provides customized, integrated management solutions to schools and universities worldwide. From delicious, nutritious foods to facilities management, our expert culinary and multi-service staff enable our partner institutions to achieve their educational mission.

Food service

Sodexo is the largest employer of dietitians in the world. We provide a complete range of nutritionally certified retail and board menu programs to:

- Public and private, primary and secondary schools
- Public and private, colleges and universities
- International schools
- Nurseries, pre-schools and day-care facilities